SIOUX CITY, Iowa - Another flight to Chicago is being added to to the Sioux Gateway Airport.

Officials at Sioux Gateway Airport and Col. Bud Day Field in Sioux City said that, starting September 5, 2018, a third flight to Chicago O'Hare will be added.

Flights from Chicago are scheduled to depart at 1:20 p.m. with an arrival to Sioux City at 2:53 p.m.

Flights from Sioux City are scheduled to depart at 3:22 p.m. with an arrival at Chicago at 5:00 p.m.

On October 4, 2018, the flight will be moved with the departure out of Sioux City at 7:00 p.m., as well as the arrival from Chicago at 6:15 p.m.

Sioux Gateway Airport Board President Darrell Jesse said, "We are excited that American Airlines continues to expand their flights at Sioux Gateway Airport. This third daily flight to Chicago O'Hare is a result of the continued support from local travelers. We have seen strong and consistent utilization of the current twice daily service to Chicago and this third flight helps to fill in the gap, making it easier for business travelers going to Chicago and back in the same day. Paired with the daily flight to Dallas/Ft. Worth, this expanded service offers our community and visitors multiple options."
